AmBank Debit Card Customers win return flight tickets to Bangkok

Three AmBank customers were each presented with a pair of return flight tickets to Bangkok as they emerged winners of their latest Debit Card Campaign. The campaign was launched in collaboration with Thai Airways and supported by Mastercard. The prize giving ceremony was held recently at Menara AmBank, Jalan Yap Kwan Seng, Kuala Lumpur.

The senior management who were present at the prize giving ceremony were Ms Liau Wai Choo, Head, Retail Products Management, AmBank (M) Berhad, Lenon Cheong, Head, Cards and Merchant Services, AmBank (M) Berhad, Mr Tishti Sumitra, General Manager for Malaysia and Brunei, Thai Airways and Ms Nikki Lee, Director of Consumer Marketing, Mastercard, Asia Pacific.

“We would like to congratulate all the winners and we are pleased to continue rewarding our valued customers for their loyalty and support towards us,” said Jade Lee, Managing Director, Retail Banking, AmBank (M) Berhad.

“The objective of this campaign is mainly to drive cashless transaction by using AmBank debit cards. Hence, by offering the chance to win such attractive prizes we hope to promote electronic payments and continue building our CASA base customers at the same time,” added Jade.

AmBank customers stood a chance to win the prize when they spent a minimum of RM200 with six times of retail transactions using Debit Card during the campaign period.
